The following paper was read and adopted, as follows:

WHEREAS, at the Annual Conference, held at Columbus Ind., September, 1883, the lay delegates, in regular conference, did unanimously recommend the following action;

WHEREAS, Asbury University has an opportunity to secure an endowment of an immense sum through the generous offer of W. C. DePauw, upon the condition, among others, that the friends of the University raise one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and,

WHEREAS, The other Conferences in Indiana have assumed a part of said sum, therefore,

Resolved, That we, as Methodist laymen in conference assembled, do hereby request our annual conference of ministers, now in session, to assume as part of the aforesaid obligation the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, with interest to be paid annually at 7 per cent.

WHEREAS, the above action was adopted as follows:

"We, therefore, having heard the resolution of the Lay Electoral Conference of yesterday, concerning this matter, recommend that our Conference assume to raise $15,000 as one-fourth of the amount, and to raise at seven per cent. rate of interest until the principal is paid;" and,

WHEREAS, The conference of ministers being dependent on the laity, whose representatives recommend to them the above action; and,

WHEREAS, With all the efforts heretofore put forth, the desired amount has not yet been fully realized; therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend the completion of this work to the careful, prayerful and earnest consideration of the Lay Conference that is to meet in session at this place September 16, 1887.

Resolved, That a committee, composed of Prof. J. P. D. John, S. Tincher, G. L. Curtiss, C. Tinsley, E. H. Wood, J. S. Tevis, J. H. Doddridge, G. P. Jenkins, and J. K. Pye, be appointed to meet with the Lay Electoral Conference September 16, 1887, and bring this matter fully before them.

CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

The Church Extension Society has proven itself to be one of the great factors in the spreading of the Redeemer's Kingdom. It has built churches for the destitute, and aided the needy in erecting for themselves houses of worship. The Society has thus aided the cause of Christ in all parts of the United States, but especially in the South and the newer Western States and Territories. We commend it to our people as worthy of their sympathies and support. As preachers we will present this cause to our congregations, and endeavor to raise the amount apportioned to our charges.

We recommend that a separate collection be taken for church extension; also, that the collection be taken before the first of July.

At the present time a part of our church property is held by very defective titles. For the correction of these titles, and to prevent such mistakes in the future, we recommend to our preachers and our Trustees the use of Dr. A. J. Kynett's book entitled "Laws and Forms for Churches."

JNO. S. TEVIS,
President.

M. L. WELLS,
Secretary.

CIRCULAR FROM JOINT DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

We, your committee appointed to receive the communication of the Joint District Association of the West Wisconsin Conference, proposing to memorialize the General Conference to make all Conference claimant collections tributary to a general church fund, instead of an annual Conference fund, beg leave to report that while we recognize the fact that all Conference claimants, of whatever Conference, are equally entitled to help from the great Church of which they are, and have been, faithful servants, yet we deem it not advisable for our Conference, at this time, to join in the proposed memorial to the General Conference.

E. A. CAMPBELL,
F. A. HESTER,
Committee.

No. 4.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TOBACCO.

INASMUCH as the use of tobacco is an uncleanly, expensive, and unhealthy habit, and

INASMUCH as all such habits are condemned by the Word of God and the discipline of our Church; therefore,

Resolved, That we will, by example and precept, discourage its use among our people.

Resolved, That it is the sentiment of this Conference that the selling of tobacco to minors in this State should be prohibited by law.

L. N. JONES,
President.

ISAAC TURNER,
Secretary.

No. 5.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TRACTS.

Believing that there is a demand for religious literature in chapters, and that under the blessing of God much good has been accomplished by the judicious distribution of religious tracts, therefore we earnestly recommend to our pastors and people a more liberal use of the literature of the Tract Society of our Church.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Having observed, to some extent at least, the workings of the American Bible Society, we believe that it is doing a grand work for God in that it supplies the poor, who are unable to possess themselves with copies of the Scriptures, with the Word of God.

We therefore recommend that each minister preach at least one sermon this year setting forth its claims and urging the people to its support.

J. C. WHITE,
President.

HENRY ROSS,
Secretary.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

WHEREAS, It is a painful fact that popular amusements, as originated by the worldly-minded, are so deceiving and blinding in their influences as to steal into the homes of many of our people and lead them into dangerous paths; therefore,

Resolved, That we continually urge upon all people those amusements and accomplishments which are calculated to improve the mind and to make the home attractive.

Resolved, That we insist upon our people fully comprehending what is meant in their vow to be cheerfully governed by the rules of the M. E Church, and that any countenance given to Sabbath base-ball and other games, card playing, dancing or any other amusement opposed by the Discipline of our church (Par. 233) is unwise and contrary to the glory of God, and is sure to bring regret.

Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

WHEREAS, We believe that the interests of the Sunday School Union have not received the attention from pastors and people which it deserves, we submit the following suggestions:

1. That we observe Good Tidings Day wherever practicable, and there faithfully represent the interest and take the collections of the Sunday School Union.

2. That we solicit from Dr. J. M. Freeman, for gratuitous distribution, the two tracts—one entitled, "The Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church," the other, "Some Facts Concerning the Sunday School Union"—which we distribute among our congregation at least one week previous to Good Tidings Day.

3. We recommend the organization of a District Sunday School Normal, to be held at least once a year, under the direction of the Presiding Elder.

4. That, as pastors, we use our influence to perpetuate the country Sunday Schools, and in places where the influence of the church and larger schools is not sufficient to supply the wants.

5. As we believe our own Sunday School literature to be the best and cheapest published, we recommend its use in all our schools.

JESSE MILLER,
President.

Secretary.

OBITUARIES.

ANDRUS—Rev. Reuben Andrus, D. D., was born in Rutland, Jefferson County, N. Y., January 29, 1824. In his early life the family removed to Fulton County, Ill. The farm upon which the family settled embraced 212 acres. The house was a rude log cabin. Church edifices were few, and usually built of logs. There was as yet no system of public school instruction in the State. A few schools existed, in which reading, writing and spelling were taught. In one of these schools Dr. Andrus began his educational career. In 1841 he entered an academy in Canton, Ill., and in the fall of 1843 he became a student in the Illinois College. But affairs at home compelled him to leave college the following spring. However, he continued his studies at home, and in September following resumed his place at school. He provided for all his expenses, books, tuition, rent, board, and miscellanies, by his own labor. He chopped wood, cut saw-logs, husked corn, spaded gardens, planted, grafted and pruned fruit trees, swept floors, made fires, and did every honorable service which his insatiable thirst for knowledge could prompt him to render, in order that he might become a scholarly man. At one time, while serving his junior year, his financial resources were so narrowed that he felt sure he must abandon the school. He wept and prayed for days. At length, when he could see no possible light in the case, he went once more to prayer. While weeping and praying in his room, he heard a knock at the door. Opening the door he was confronted by the President of the college, who had come to tell him of a vacancy which had occurred in the Department of Mathematics, and to offer him a position as helper, which would be worth $50 for the remainder of the year. He accepted the proffer as an evident token of Divine favor. The college course continued only a little further, when it was seriously interrupted by the death of his father, Reuben Andrus, Sr., which occurred September 1, 1845. This made it necessary for him to go to the aid of his mother and the younger brothers in the care of the home. As a consequence he fell behind his class. But in September, 1846, he returned to the college and continued in uninterrupted work until admitted into the senior class of 1848.

About this time the appointment of Tutor of McKendree College and Principal of the Preparatory Department came to him. He accepted the position on certificate of honorable dismission, and entered the senior class of McKendree College in September, 1848. Here he taught the elements of Latin and Greek three times each day during the college year, kept the records of the department, made the reports, attended the meetings of the faculty, led the chapel prayers once each week, preached one Sunday night each month in the college chapel, superintended the church Sunday-school, besides keeping up his studies. He was graduated with the senior class July 18, 1849. After his graduation, Dr. Andrus taught a private school on the subscription plan at Greenfield, Ill. The school was so highly successful that he organized it into an academy, under the name of "Greenfield Institute." In April, 1850, Dr. Andrus resigned this school to accept the charge of Decatur Circuit, lying mostly within the bounds of Macon County. The pastor in charge had been compelled to vacate the circuit in the middle of the year on account of inadequate support. Dr. Andrus relieved him of his work as a "supply" for the remainder of the Conference year. At the Illinois Conference in Bloomington, 1850, he was admitted on trial as a Methodist preacher. About two weeks prior to that session he was elected Principal of the Preparatory Department of the Illinois Wesleyan University, to which position he was duly appointed, and entered upon his work in October, 1850. The following June he was elected to the Chair of Mathematics in the same institution. As there was no Professor of Greek employed, he volunteered to associate that department with his own, doing for that year double work. The strain was too heavy. His health gave way, and he was compelled to resign his position at the close of the second year. In 1852 he received an appointment to the Springfield Mission. About the middle of the Conference year his church edifice was sold under mortgage, but bought in again by friends of the church for educational purposes. A school was organized under the name of "Central Academy," with Rev. Reuben Andrus as Principal.

In 1853 he was appointed to Beardstown; in 1854 to Decatur Within two months of the close of the conference year he accepted a call to the presidency of the Illinois Conference Female College at Jacksonville. At the end of the first collegiate year he was re-elected to the position as a permanent relation, but he declined the honor, choosing rather to devote his life to the work of an itinerant minister. In 1856–57 he served as pastor at Quincy, and in 1858–59 at Beardstown. In 1860 he was appointed to Springfield, and in 1862–64 to Bloomington. In 1865 he was again stationed in Quincy. Toward the close of that year the trustees of Quincy College invited him to the presidency of that institution, an offer which he promptly declined. Later, however, in order to relieve the college from a most serious embarrassment, he consented to accept the presidency for one year, In 1867 he was transferred to the Indiana Conference, and stationed in Evansville. where he remained three years. In 1870 he was stationed in Indianapolis, at Meridian Street. At that time the worshipers were occupying only the basement of their splendid edifice, but during his pastorate the whole building was completed. In 1872 Dr. Andrus was elected to the presidency of Indiana Asbury University as successor to Rev. Thomas Bowman, D. D. This position he retained until July, 1875, when he resigned and returned to the regular work of the itinerant ministry. In 1877 he was transferred to the Southeast Indiana Conference, and stationed in Central Avenue Church, Indianapolis, where he remained three years. In 1880–81 he was stationed at Rushville, Ind. During his second year in that charge, as an alternative against failing health, he made a visit to Europe. The tour chosen took in portions of England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. In 1882, in broken health, he accepted a supernumerary relation to his conference, and spent his time for two years upon a farm near Kokomo, Ind.

In 1884 he was made effective and appointed to Franklin, in which charge he remained until last September. No one knew better than himself the fearful odds against him in the matter of his failing health. He was fully conscious of the forces that were steadily sapping his strength. He resolved to risk everything on a last brave effort to regain his health. Accordingly at the conference at Indianapolis last September he asked for a superannuated relation. At once he placed himself in the hands of skillful surgeons for thorough treatment. But with all that surgery and medicine could do for him he gradually declined. He died at his home in Indianapolis on the morning of January 17, 1887, at the age of 63 years. Dr. Andrus was first married to Emeline Louisa Van Pelt, of Naples, Ill., in 1849. She died in 1851. In 1853 he was married to Matilda Stamper, of Decatur, Ill., who, with one son and a daughter, survives. His last illness was protracted, and at times attended with much suffering and utter prostration. But he bore up with remarkable fortitude; for he was marvelously sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust in God. He had seasons of wonderful visitations from the Lord. His sayings, testimonies, and spiritual confidings, would make a volume if all written. Only a few of them can here be mentioned. With the tears flowing down over his cheeks, he said, "The restfulness of a man's soul in deep paroxysms of pain, is simply beyond all description. I never dreamed that the Lord could bless a poor mortal on a bed of languishing and pain, as he is blessing me. Wonderful! wonderful!" Again, he said: "God gave me a high day on Christmas! It was perfectly resplendent with the divine glory. The things which I saw and felt were beyond anything I ever experienced before. He doesn't give me many such days," he added, "but one in a lifetime is sufficient." At another time he said: "I have been digging away at the Psalms of David for a lifetime in an intellectual way, but never felt that I really understood them. But here on my bed, in deep pain, the Lord has let me down into the Psalms of David. It seems as though they were written expressly for me." At this point his nature seemed almost to dissolve in the tide of blessing which swept over his soul. He wept, he clapped his hands, and to the measure of his strength exulted aloud. Thus from first to last, in all his conscious moments, his whole experience seemed to be toward deeper, purer and more enrapturing joys. Thus lived and died a good man; and from the ranks of childhood, youth, and age, all through this land, in which he has so faithfully wrought, there rises an innumerable company to call him blessed. At his own request his funeral services were observed in Central Avenue Methodist Church. The interment took place at Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, where he sleeps the sleep of the just.

A. W. LAMPORT.

REUBEN ANDRUS.

As a preacher, Dr. Andrus was clear, analytical, logical, forcible. His preaching was highly instructive and often deeply convincing. At times he was masterly and eloquent. He reinforced his pulpit work by the values of his large experience and wide observation as educator and pastor. Socially, he was a most superior man. He was fitted, both by nature and acquirement, to be the presiding spirit of the intelligent circles in which he moved. He shone resplendently in his quiet course, illumined by those graces and virtues which adorn the human character and commend the individual man.

Such is our life—

"Like the snow-fall on the river,
"A moment white, then melts forever."

REV. WM. EVANS.

Rev. William Evans was born in Baltimore, Md., January 5, 1812, and died in his seventy-sixth year, May 3, 1887, at North Vernon, Ind. He spent forty years in the active ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was an honored supernumerary member of the Southeast Indiana Conference for several years preceding his death. All his appointments during his forty years' labor can not now be given. His first appointments were in the Baltimore Conference. He served several charges in Baltimore city. Among the number were Exeter and Fayette Street churches. He afterward transferred to the Kentucky Conference, and filled acceptably several important charges in that Conference. In one of these—Catlettsburg—the church received a wonderful baptism of the Spirit, and many souls were saved. In 1871 he transferred to the Southeast Indiana Conference, and was stationed at Dillsboro, Versailles, Manchester and St. Paul. At the latter place his health failed him, and he took a supernumerary relation. He was twice married, first in St. Mary's County, Maryland, to Miss Matilda Carpenter, August 1, 1849. This marriage was blessed with six children, four of whom survive. His second marriage was to Miss Alice Bealmear, Baltimore, Md., March 17, 1878. She and their one son survive him. He was sick several months. To questions as to his faith, he always responded that it was strong and in Christ alone. During his last conscious moments he called his wife to his bedside and called her attention to the following words, which he said had been running through his mind in both waking and sleeping hours:

"Preach Him to all, and cry in death,
"Behold! Behold the Lamb."

These were his last words. He quietly passed away.

As a preacher, he was earnest, accurate and profound. His character as a preacher was best observed when he was laboring in revival meetings, inspired with shouts of new born souls. His labors are ended, and he has gone to his reward.

REV. AARON WOOD, D. D.

We are called to record the death of a veteran in our common Zion. Aaron Wood, D D., the oldest Methodist minister in Indiana has gone to his rest in heaven. He died at his home in Yountsville, Indiana, August 20, 1887, aged 85 years. Though not a member of this Conference, yet for fifty years he has been so closely identified with the history of Methodism and its institutions in this State that we deem it a duty and a privilege to bear our testimony to his memory, and to express our appreciation of his great usefulness and ability as a minister in Christ, and of his devotion to the religious, intellectual and moral improvement of all his fellow citizens among whom he lived, labored and toiled for so many years. He was a member of the old Indiana Conference, from which has come the Northwest, the North, and the Southeast Indiana Conferences. We may truly say of him as was said of an old Roman, "His deeds are enrolled in the hearts of his countrymen" and the records of the Church. In the General Conference, of which he was a member several times, in stations, circuits, districts, agencies, and other important positions of trust, he was always the same good and faithful man. "Though dead, he yet lives."

HARRIS.

Bishop Wm. L. Harris, D. D., LL. D., was born in Mansfield, Ohio, November 4, 1817. He made his own way in college, but retired before graduation. He was licensed to preach and received on trial in the Michigan Conference in 1837, and had he lived five days longer he would have finished fifty years in the itinerancy. He was, for a short time, connected with the Baldwin Institute (now Ohio University), at Berea, Ohio. He remained with that institution till 1860, when he was elected by the General Conference Assistant Secretary of the Missionary Society. He became thoroughly acquainted with this work, and though never as able in his appeals as Dr. Durbin he kept the whole Church informed as to what was being done. To this position he was twice elected. He was also a most efficient Secretary of General Conference, from 1856 to 1872. In 1872 he was elected Bishop. In ecclesiastical polity and law he was probably without a peer in the Church. He died September 2, 1887, at his home in New York City, full of faith and good works.

CURRY.

Daniel Curry, D. D., LL. D., was born in New York, near Peekskill, November 26, 1809. In 1837 he graduated from the Wesleyan University. His rise since that, till his death, was rapid, and at the time of his death he was held in the highest estimation, not only by the Church to which he belonged, but by the entire thinking world. His first years of activity after graduation were in connection with educational institutions, first in the Troy Conference Academy and afterward the Georgia Female College. He then entered the pastorate and filled important charges for thirteen years, till transferred to the Indiana Conference and elected to the Presidency of the Indiana Asbury University. He continued in this relation two years, and again returned to the East and entered the pastorate. He continued in this relation till 1864, when the General Conference elected him editor of the Christian Advocate. For twelve years he performed the duties of that office. In 1876 he was elected editor of the Repository, and in 1884 editor of the Methodist Review, dying in office, full of years and honor.

FREEDMEN.

We, your committee recognizing the importance and magnitude of the work which has, and is, being done by the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in its effort to uplift the colored race and poor whites of the South, in that in the past twenty years this society has been enabled to collect and expend nearly $2,000,000 in this work, and thereby the schools of this society are scattered all over the South from Maryland to Texas. Wherever they have been planted, they have proven to be fountains from which have emanated most copious streams of social, intellectual, moral, and spiritual influences, graciously enriching vast areas, and making many desert places to bud and blossom with unwonted beauty, thereby appealing alike to the patriot, the philanthropist and the Christian. And,

WHEREAS, The safety of a Republic depends upon the intelligence and moral status of its citizens, and as an ignorant man is an unsafe member of society, and unfit to cast a ballot, sit on a jury, or legislate for the welfare of the State; therefore the demand for the education of more than six millions of this class rests alike upon the church and State; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Southeast Indiana Conference, renew our pledges of devotion to this great interest of our church, and by the help of Almighty God we will put forth our best efforts to raise the amount apportioned to our various charges, to properly support and increase the efficiency of this great and important work.

Resolved, That we accept our apportionment of $2,000, and hereby instruct the Presiding Elders to distribute that amount among the various charges to be raised the coming year. To aid in doing this we recommend each pastor to secure the valuable charts the Secretary provides.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Time passes, vital force diminishes, strength fails, infirmities accumulate and age is here. The trumpet calls to battle, but the old hero can no longer rush to the front of the conflict, for his step is tremulous and his arm feeble. "The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

In such position stand the ministers of our church, when, having reached that point in life, they have been compelled to cross the line drawn between the effective pastoral and the superannuated relation. With loving zeal unabated, their physical disabilities force them into a helpless inactivity. They need, deserve and should promptly receive our sympathies and support. The amount allowed them is not a charity, but a claim to which they are as justly entitled as are we to our salaries, and that claim should be paid to the last dollar. And to this end we recommend that all our pastors give earnest attention to the increase of this fund.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

The educational interests of our church in this State have centered in this institution. The young men and women from our own and other States are gathering here by the hundreds for moral, religious and intellectual instruction. The past year has surpassed all previous ones in all the departments, with 848 students enrolled, and the present year opens with greater promise and a larger enrollment of students than ever before. Special attention is called to the theological department, which has been strengthened by the election of two additional professors, viz.: Rev. G. L. Curtis to the chair of Historical, and Rev. M. M. Parkhurst to the chair of Practical Theology.

We recommend that this school of sacred learning be put upon the same basis as that of other Methodist schools of theology. Forty years of experience have proved that no Methodist School of Theology can live simply as a post graduate department of a university. It has been tried repeatedly, and either failed outright or maintained a sickly existence.

We fail to find a Methodist school of theology that is not autonomous.

Boston, Garrett and Drew have struggled with this question for twenty-five years, only to become a unit in policy and opinion, while Gammon, at Atlanta, and Maclay, in California, after years of unhappy effort, have, during the past year, accepted the only successful policy known to Methodism.

Every Methodist school of theology has, first, a special endowment which, though managed by the University Trustees, is kept intact, and the increase of which is sacredly devoted to the support of the school.

Students of theology have advantages over other students in the matter of room rent, free tuition, etc.

Your committee is satisfied that we should accept these well-established conditions, and waste no time in fruitless experiments and wearisome discussions over a line of policy long ago discarded by the wisest men of the church.

We recommend the appointment, by the Bishop, of Rev. Geo. L. Curtiss, D. D., to the Chair of Historical Theology.

We recommend as Visitors, Dr. G. P. Jenkins and Rev. E. B. Rawls.

The University proper is passing through the most significant hours of its entire history at the present time. The pledge of $15,000 by this Conference was not only unpaid at the beginning of our present session, but interest on the same to the amount of $2,500 had accumulated, making a total of $17,500 for which we were pledged as a Conference.

Dr. John came before the conference and stated that he was authorized to say that he had reasonable assurance of $10,000 of the above amount, and that $1,000 more had been either paid or pledged by the charges in the Conference, leaving a balance of $6,500 unprovided for. Subscriptions were at once begun to meet this deficiency, and $5,010 secured, leaving a balance of $1,490 to be provided for by other methods. Should it become necessary, in order to raise this balance, we request the Executive Board of the University to release Dr. John from his duties as Instructor for three months, or such time as may be required to complete this work. We recommend the appointment of J. P. D. John, D. D., to a professorship in the University.

We have received, with many regrets, the resignation of Rev. F. C. Holliday as Trustee of the University, because of failing health. Dr. Holliday has held this responsible office for thirty-seven consecutive years, being the oldest Trustee on the Board. He has stood by the University in all its varied history during all these years, and his wise counsels and sound judgment will be greatly missed We recommend that Rev. M. L. Wells be elected to fill out the unexpired term of Dr. Holliday. We also recommend Rev. J. H. Doddridge and Rev. C. C. Edwards as Conference Visitors.

An expense of about $75.00 has been incurred by the Conference Committee for printing, etc., in conection with their work, and we recommend that this amount be paid from the funds raised by this Conference for the University.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

The past year of this institution has been marked by prosperity, and opens the present year with flattering prospects.

This institution located in the bounds of our own conference is doing a most excellent work for our church, helping young men and women to an education that otherwise could not receive it. We earnestly commend it to the pastors and people of our conference as in every way worthy of their prayers and patronage. At the last annual commencement the President, Rev. L. G. Adkinson, presented his resignation to enter the educational work in another field. The work of Bro. Adkinson was very successful and entirely satisfactory to the trustees and his resignation was accepted with much regret. Rev. G. P. Jenkins, D. D., has been selected to succeed Dr. Adkinson in the presidency of the college.

Dr. Jenkins is a practical man, a thorough educator and a member of our own conference, and should receive the hearty support of our conference and church.

We recommend that the sum of $1,000 be apportioned by the Presiding Elders to the several charges of their districts according to ability for collection for this college, and that the preachers see to it that it be faithfully presented and that this be taken as the regular Disciplinary Educational Collection.

We recommend the appointment by the Bishop of Rev. G. P. Jenkins, D. D., to the Presidency, and that of Rev. C. W. Hargitt, A. M., and Rev. Monroe Vayhinger, A. M., to professorship in the college.

We recommend as Trustees for three years Hon. John R. Thompson, Hanson D. Moore, Rev. S. Tincher, D. D., James S. Stevens, Rev. R. Roberts, Hon. J. G. Berkshire and Rev. E. L. Dolph, D. D.

For one year David G. Philip to fill out the term of Hon. W. T. Friedly, resigned, Chas. P. Miller, for two years to fill out the unexpired term of Hon. Will Cumback, resigned.

We recommend as Conference visitors Rev. R. D. Black, Rev. E. H. Wood and Rev F. M. Westhafer together with the pastors at Columbus, Aurora, Rising Sun and Seymour.

EDUCATION.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This school of sacred learning, located at Evanston, Ill., is doing a noble work in preparing our young men more thoroughly and effectively to preach the gospel of Christ, and we commend it to the attention of our young men who are expecting to enter the ministry of the church. We recommend as visitors J. W. Dashiell and J. W. Turner.

We call attention, also, to the Boston School of Theology, from which papers and circulars have been received.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

In view of the increasing popularity and good results of Children's Day, and in view of the noble purpose for which the contributions are devoted, we earnestly recommend the general observance of this day throughout the Conference.

WOMANS' HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society is doing a grand work in our country for our church and for the glory of God; and,

WHEREAS, It is desirous that the sphere of its work be enlarged and extended in all directions; therefore,

Resolved, That, as ministers, we extend our practical and hearty coöperation, and urge the organization of these societies in the churches where they are not in operation.

Resolved, also, That we will assist in every way in carrying on the grand mission assumed by it.

WOMANS' FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The spirit and work of the Womans' Foreign Missionary Society has awakened a deep spiritual interest in the hearts of the mothers and sisters in many of our churches, and is fast becoming a strong agency in the spread of the gospel; therefore,

Resolved, That we will endeavor to do all we can to increase its efficiency by encouraging the organization of auxilliaries in our charges.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to report as follows:

The extirpation of the liquor traffic has become the profoundest question before the American people. Its deadly influence affects, to an alarming extent, every commercial, social and moral interest of society.

The manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquors is the cause of pauperism and the progenitor of crime. It defies all restraints, whether moral, social or legal. It is a lawless business; it seeks to evade, defeat, or defy every law enacted to regulate it.

It is the greatest foe of Christian work; it violates the Sabbath and scorns the Church of God.

We therefore stand on the time-honored platform of Methodism, as written in the law of the church, namely, "We regard voluntary total abstinence from all intoxicants as the true ground of personal temperance and complete legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks as the duty of civil government."

2d. We will continue to present the subject from the pulpit, and in private life express our hearty approval of all lawful and Christian efforts and movements to save society from the evils of intemperance.

3d. We will urge our people to request the Legislature of our State, by petition, to enact or amend the law so as to secure a more complete restraint by local option or legal prohibition.

R. D. BLACK,
Chairman.

Secretary.

ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

We recognize the Holy Sabbath as a Divine institution ordained of God for the benefit of mankind, and to be perpetuated to the end of time as a day of rest, and a day for religious culture and worship.

We regard the practice of going to places of amusement or on excursions of pleasure, either in boats, cars or carriages, as a pernicious practice, and an open violation of the Law of God.

We also regard social Sabbath visiting for the purpose of feasting and transacting worldly business as a violation of the Fourth Commandment.

We believe the proper observance of this holy day to be a safeguard to our government and a refinement to our national prosperity, and, as a Conference, we urge the church to show an example of purity before the world. We also pledge ourselves to preach at least one sermon during the year setting forth the evils of Sabbath desecration and the benefits of its proper observance.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDING ELDER OF CONNERSVILLE DISTRICT.

BY C. TINSLEY, PRESIDING ELDER.

To the Southeast Indiana Annual Conference, held at Edinburg September 14, 1887:

The Connersville District is situated in the northeast part of the Conference, extending 55 miles west from Ohio and about 35 miles south from the North Indiana Conference.

There are 82 societies. Of these 79 have churches, including Connersville, which is an opera house, 1 hall, 1 school house, and 1 union church. Besides these there are 5 unused church buildings, which have been replaced by others in better locations.

A large and well arranged Gothic edifice, capable of seating 1,200 persons, and costing $21,300, has been dedicated at Rushville, the debt of $7,000 provided for by 8,000 subscriptions. It is handsomely furnished; has fine pipe organ. A neat frame parsonage of seven rooms adjoins the church, worth $1,200.

At Liberty a church worth $13,500 has been completed, furnished and dedicated, and the debt provided for and mostly collected.

Considerable improvement has been made in churches in repairs, reseating, papering, painting, and making the general appearance more attractive.

There are parsonages on 16 charges, generally in good repair.

Dr. Holliday has been able to do but little work this year. At last Conference the bishop who visited him hoped that he would improve and be able for service, but several times he has been on the borders of death, and is now very feeble. In his ministry of 52 years he has been a man of one work and single purpose. He has beed unusually successful, industrious and prudent, a wise counselor and good administrator. His last work was to inaugurate the building of the Rushvill-Church, secure the heaviest subscriptions and organize for success. This is the second year he has beeu absent from roll call, and save once before he has answered to his name for 50 years. He sends greeting to his brethren, with whom his life is bound up, and asks to be remembered in your prayers. He has not only given to the itineracy his best, but all he had, to the last day of work there was in him, and now at 72 he has the reflection that he tried to do his duty to God and his brethren.

J. F. McClain has been stationed now two years at Laurel. He has been blessed with a gracious revival, and from the first has endeared himself to the people. Several months since he sprained his knee, and injured it again by a fall. Neuralgia set in, causing at times great suffering. As his health does not improve, he is compelled to retire from the work. There is added to the pain of withdrawing from the work of his life, the awful pressure that comes down on the disabled worker as he turns away from his charge and finds himself without support, to suffer, to fade from the memory of his brethren. No quarterly meetings for him; no stewards for him except those at conference. Brethren, in such a time we must stand by each other, and do more than say good-bye, and God bless you.

After last conference I found I had four supplies and one vacancy. I secured H. J. Black for Mt. Carmel circuit. He comes seeking admission.

I consented to the employment of J. H. Bickford at Rushville, who has acted as assistant pastor to Dr. Holliday. He comes asking admission to conference.

Connersville district has six supplies and one vacant charge, Fayetteville.

The supply on the Brownsville circuit was changed for Thos. Ayres, and the supply on the Fayetteville work was succeeded by Wm. Kingsley, who retires.

Nearly 600 persons have united with the church on probation. I expect a good increase in membership. Attention has been paid to the church records. In many instances a loss in figures does not mean an actual loss in membership.

There will be an increase of about $450 in missions. Large gains at Connersville, St. Paul's, Waldron, Morristown, Metamora, Fairfield, Brookville and Brownsville.

The children have more sermons preached to them than formerly, and classes are being formed for their instruction. Sunday-schools are generally held all the year, and missionary contributions gathered from them, and our own literature is generally used.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDING ELDER OF THE JEFFERSONVILLE DISTRICT.

BY G. L. CURTISS, PRESIDING ELDER.

Jeffersonville District has 23 charges, supplied by 25 pastors, and composed of over 9,000 members. Of the preachers, 22 are members of the Conference, and 3 are supplies. The preachers were at their places promptly after adjournment of Conference, and in no instance were complaints made on account of the man sent by the Bishop to serve the charge. It is a great relief to a sensitive Presiding Elder to commence his year's work with satisfied preachers and a happy, contented people.

The year has been marked as one of revivals in the district. Over 1,400 accessions on probation were reported to me during the year. The work of sifting and receiving into full connection has demonstrated the genuineness of the revival work. In one circuit the accessions amounted to nearly 400. My soul has often rejoiced with the brethren in this glorious victory for Jesus.

There has been considerable church building and dedication during the year.

1. The handsome church at Deputy, costing $2,500, was completed and dedicated free from debt in October, by Rev. L. G. Adkinson.

2. A new church at Forest Grove, on Henryvill Circuit and named after that grand old Methodist soldier, Colonel Willey, was dedicated by Dr. Sheets free from debt.

3. On the same day your humble servant dedicated New Chapel, on Scottsburgh Circuit, costing a few dollars less than $1,000, free from debt. These two churches were paid for entirely before the day of dedication. It seemed almost unnatural to have a Methodist dedication and no debt to be provided for. These churches are marvels for beauty, good workmanship and small cost.

4. At Columbus, in the month of June, Bishop Bowman dedicated one of the handsomest and most commodious churches in our Conference. It cost $18,000. The debt was provided for on the day of dedication by good subscriptions, much of which has already been collected. Methodism in Columbus has had a hand-to-hand fight in the years past. Sin and Satan there held high carnival, having a seat, if not a throne. But God's ministers and a noble, self-sacrificing membership have stood their ground, and conquered at last. Now may they retain their place and grow strong until the whole of that rich city and country shall be taken for Jesus.

5. The last Sunday in June I dedicated the New Bethel Church, on New Washington Circuit, a handsome brick structure of sufficient capacity to accommodate the community.

These five churches are now in good service for Methodism and our Holy Religion.

At present there are two churches in the process of erection—one at Scottsburgh, and one at Christiansburgh, on Freetown Circuit. These will soon be ready for occupancy.

There has been considerable done in the way of repairing, papering, decorating and painting. The spirit of taste in the appearance in our churches is abroad in the land. At present there is but one log church in the District, and even that is doomed to go before a new and neat house.

Death has visited our District, and one of the Conference, Rev. William Evans, has deceased at North Vernon. Brother Evans was a supernumerary member of the Conference, and had not been able to do effective work for some time. The Committee on Memoirs will doubtless bring out the facts.

Three local preachers have died. Rev. R. N. Staynes, of Freetown Circuit, an old man, and full of years; Rev. William Parker, of Seymour, and Alfred Phelps, have died during the year. Death has entered the family of Brother Henry Rosi and taken a little infant child, their only boy. One of the sad things about a preacher's family is that they plant in some country graveyard a dear little child, and then must go away and leave it. This would be overwhelming but for the fact that God watches over the little sleeper, and in the resurrection can bring these little ones from every place to himself.

One of our faithful brethren has been sadly afflicted by sickness in his family and in himself. Brother Roberts, his estimable wife, and three splendid daughters were stricken down with typhoid fever and a pernicious form of malarial fever, and five of them were sick at once in the parsonage in Jeffersonville. For a time it seemed exceedingly doubtful as to the result. The fight for life was a hard one. But at last life was successful, and all are in the way to recovery. The cause of their sickness has been traced to the surroundings, not on the parsonage premises, but on grounds that once were a part of the parsonage lot. It is hoped that all cause of the outbreak of disease is removed by thorough sanitation.

Brother Giltner, a supply on New Washington Circuit, has been greatly afflicted, and, I fear, is permanetly disabled.

The year has been one of great labor on the part of preachers and Presiding Elder. I have found no moments for idleness. The work has demanded every energy, all the skill and genius, and all the gifts and grace I have possessed, to do the work and meet successfully all the demands. I have missed one Quarterly Conference because of sickness, one because of high water, and two because of special work on other parts of the District. In these cases brethren have cheerfully gone to my aid. It has been a pleasure so attend the work. A hearty coöperation has been given on the part of the brethren and people. May God bless all of them. There has been constant attention given to the missionary work, and strong effort made to carry the District beyond the million-dollar line.

The Sunday-schools have increased in average attendance, as well as in the number holding over the entire year. It has been frequently demonstrated that our Sunday-schools are our best feeders to the Church.

The class meetings are not dead in this district. They are kept up in all the charges, and in some places are largely attended, and are a success. The prayer meetings are also good.

The camp meeting held on the beautiful grounds at Deputy was a time of refreshing spiritually. Souls were converted and believers strengthened. This Camp Meeting Association is so placed under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Jeffersonville District and the Kent Circuit, where it is located, that it can not be diverted to other uses.

During the time I have been on the District I have given large attention to hunting up the titles of our church property. I have made a little book containing the character of the titles to each piece of property, as far as I could find it, which I will hand over to my successor. I have found several pieces of our property wherein the title is utterly worthless only as the Trustees will enter suit to quiet title on the ground of the shadow of title and twenty years of undisputed possession. Brethren can not be too careful about the titles to their churches.

Personally, the District work has been quite hard, but I have enjoyed it, and believe I have been able to do some good.

I close this year my work on the District, and by arrangement already perfected, go to another field of labor. I shall always remember these years with pleasure.

Thirty years I have been a member of the Southeast Indiana Conference, and have never failed to answer "Present" at roll-call. One year of that time I was professor in the College at Moore's Hill, twenty-six years a pastor, and three years Presiding Elder. It was a large class which entered thirty-one years ago at Aurora. We were ten in number. Three are dead—Lockwood, Adams and Shaw. One went out I know not where. Three went to other conferences—Lozier, Richemeyer and Goodwin. Three remain—Roberts, Pye and Curtiss. We remain together with only a few men our seniors, though we are yet young.

As I look over the three years on the District, and repeat over the names of the men I have been so intimately associated with, I want to record my testimony that they have been and are a splendid set of men—God's noblemen—worthy to be ranked among the highest. Brethren, if at any time I have done anything in my intercourse with you that was wrong, be assured I did not mean to do wrong. It was an error of the head, and not of the heart. I freely and fully ask your pardon.

In the arrangements of the appointments in the council of the Bishops I have sought to do the best I could for each man. I have had only the glory of God in view. I have carried my brethren, their wives and children on my heart, and have thought much and prayed much for Divine guidance in the advice in making the appointments. I have heard it said that the old Presiding Elders got to a state in which they had little or no feeling. It may have been so with them, but if I were a Presiding Elder for fifty years I should always be filled with a deep sense of the responsibility, and act under a heart moved with deep sympathy.

Of the people of Jeffersonville District, I desire to say they are the noblest in the world. I have lived full one-half of the three years in their families. I have ever found and received a hearty welcome and the kindliest Christian attention. Methodist people filled with the love of God know how to entertain grandly.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDING ELDER OF MOORE'S HILL DISTRICT.

BY E. H. WOOD, PRESIDING ELDER.

To the Southeast Indiana Conference, held at Edinburg, Ind., Sept. 14, 1887:

Beloved Bishop and Brethren of Southeast Indiana Conference, I appear before you to present my second annual report of Moore's Hill District.

By the blessing of God I have been able to attend every Quarterly Meeting during the year, and hold all the Quarterly Conferences.

At the close of our last Conference session one supply was left to be secured, viz.: for Delaware Circuit. R. W. Johnson was soon secured, and all the brethren were quickly in their various fields of labor, and I think I can truthfully say they have labored faithfully and well.

Death has not entered our ranks, and the health of the preachers, for the most part, has been good, although there has been affliction in some of their families. At the first Quarterly Meeting for Westport Circuit, I found the death angel had visited the parsonage, and Rev. F. A. Guthrie and good wife were in deep sorrow at the loss of their sweet little daughter of two summers. Appropriate services were held on Saturday morning of December 11, 1886, when the parents conveyed their loved one to Indianapolis and laid it away to rest.

The year just closing has, perhaps, not been so marked with sweeping revivals of religion as the year which preceded, yet there has been a great deal of very important work accomplished, of a permanent character, in establishing the faith of believers, and more positively fixing their purposes.

Some lines of church enterprise, before neglected, have been undertaken and prosecuted most successfully, and the reports of the pastors in this district will show quite a large amount raised for improvements and building in Church and parsonage property. Improvements and amounts are as follows:

North Madison, $80; Lawrenceburg, rearranging audience room, new carpets and organ, a beautiful set of rooms for infant class, and the purchase and removal of the old brick building that stood in the rear of the church, adding greatly to the appearance of the surroundings, all at a cost of $1,125; Versailles, $220; Canaan, $135; Churches at Greensburg, $275; Moorefield, $275; Parsonage and roofing churches, Wilmington, $425, at Union; Aurora, $2,875; Madison, $450; Patriot, $397.50; Dillsboro, $130.

We have suffered an almost unprecedented drouth in this region of country during the past summer. Commencing with the first of June, it has continued until the present time. It has been a trying ordeal to many, and the profits of some, if anything, will fall below former years. It has been a favorable time for those disposed to raise the cry of hard times and withhold their gifts; yet, in spite of all this, most vigorous efforts have been put forth in behalf of the salaries of the preachers and the benevolent interests of the church, a number of them far in advance, others have held to their average, while a few, perhaps owing to circumstances which they could not entirely control, have fallen a little short. Yet the preachers and members are worthy of the highest commendation for the noble effort they have made and the success achieved.

The class-meetings and Sunday-schools have been inquired after at each visitation to the several charges, and an earnest effort made to secure a written report of each at the Quarterly Conferences. While, in some instances, there are good reports of the attendance at class-meetings, yet it must be acknowledged that this means of grace is greatly neglected, much to the spiritual disadvantage of our people. But our Sunday-schools are on the upward grade; faithful work has been done in the instruction of our youth. Our people are becoming more careful and loyal in the selection of their Sunday-school literature, and conforming more generally to the directions of our Discipline in the selection of Superintendents and other Sunday-school officers. And in a number of instances throughout the rural districts it is being thoroughly demonstrated that Sunday-schools can be held through the entire winter as well as summer.

The Western Christian Advocate is recognized as the authorized organ of our church, and the paper for Methodists in this section of the country, and has been received and read during the past year with increased favor, and I think there has been an increase in the list of subscribers.

Quite a number of new Church Registers and Recording Stewards' Books have been purchased during the year for those charges that either had none or they had been filled up. A great deal of church history and business proceedings have been lost by careless neglect; and very many charges would be unable to complete a perfect historical record from the simple fact that the data required is not to be obtained.

We desire in this report to submit the following items, as compiled from the various charges of the district:

Number of full members	7,862	increase, 155
Number of probationers	345
Number of conversions	411
Net increase	249
Cost of building and improvements	$6,748 00
Paid on old indebtedness		——
Comparison in benevolences		——
This year's receipts for Missionary Cause	$1,283 00
Last year	1,220 00
Increase		$63 00

We have in the district 77 church buildings and 14 parsonages, 6 Local Elders, 4 Local Deacons, 12 Local Preachers, 12 Exhorters.

I have traveled 3,560 miles, preached 173 times, written 365 postal cards and 109 letters.

Another successful year has ended in the history of Moore's Hill College, and there is still a good prospect before it. Rev. L. G. Adkinson has served faithfully as President for the past five years, and the Institute has enjoyed a period of prosperity under his direction. He saw proper to offer his resignation to the Board of Trustees at their annual meeting in June last, which was very reluctantly accepted by them, after unsuccessful attempts to secure his continuance, since which time he has been elected to and accepted the Presidency of New Orleans University, and has removed with his family to that city. May great prosperity attend him in his new field of labor.

In the providence of God, as we trust, Rev. G. P. Jenkins, D. D., has been elected as President of Moore's Hill College, and Rev. Monroe Vayhinger and Rev. C. W. Hargett as Professors, and all the preliminary arrangements have been made for Rev. D. T. Hedges to serve the church in Utah, all this subject to the approval of our Presiding Bishop.

I desire to commend the preachers of this district for their faithfulness and untiring devotion to their work, and congratulate them over their success, and would also express my unbounded gratitude for their loving sympathy to me and hearty co-operation in the arduous labors of the year. The Presiding Eldership of Moore's Hill District affords an excellent opportunity for hard work, and an abundance of it, but of this I have no complaint to make; my chief joy is in working for my Master.

My association with the membership of the church has been of a most delightful character. I have enjoyed the best company, partaken of the best fare, and slept in the best beds, and he who desires the office of Presiding Elder of Moore's Hill District desires a good thing. But, Bishop and brethren, it has not been all sunshine. I have at times felt my own insufficiency for the great responsible work of the church, and been comforted with the thought my sufficiency was of God; and thus, as I have committed my way unto the Lord and trusted in Him, He has led me, and leads me now.

Respectfully submitted, E. H. WOOD,
Presiding Elder of Moore's Hill District.

THE GREAT CYCLOPÆDIA

—OF—

Biblical, Theological and Ecclesiastical Literature.

IN TWELVE STATELY OCTAVO VOLUMES.

Enriched With 2,900 Illustrations, Numerous Maps, and 55,000 Subjects, by

REV. JOHN M'CLINTOCK, D. D., AND JAMES STRONG, S. T. D.

THE WORK HAS NO PEER AND NO COMPETITORS.

The Most Scholarly, Accurate, Complete and Useful Work of the Kind Ever Constructed.

HEAR THE VERDICT OF THE MOST EMINENT DIVINES AND SCHOLARS:

Rev. Bishop Thomas Bowman, D. D.—"The more I use the Cyclopædia the more highly I appreciate it. Every minister and Bible student ought to have it."

Rev. Bishop Mathew Simpson, D. D.—"The Cyclopædia is invaluable for the Biblical and Theological student."

Rev. Bishop J. F. Hurst, D. D.—"It supplies a want never before met, and to the American Theologian in particular it must henceforth be a real necessity."

Rev. S. M. Buckley, D. D., Editor of the Christian Advocate.—"It covers the whole ground and covers it well, besides containing much of value to the American pastor not elsewhere attainable. Nothing ever published in this country is equal to it for working purposes."

Rev. St. James B. Fry, D. D., Editor of the Central Advocate.—"Its value is so great it should be obtained at almost any cost. It will be worth more to all students of the Bible and Theology than an ordinary library of 200 or 300 volumes."

Rev. Wm. R. Harper, D. D., Professor of Hebrew and Cognate Languages in Baptist Theological Seminary, Morgan Park, Ill., and Professor of Oriental Languages in Yale College, New Haven, Conn.—"This Cyclopædia ought, in my opinion to be found in the library of every minister. He will find in it the latest and best information on almost every Biblical subject he may desire to investigate."

Rev. M. S. Terry, D. D., Professor in Garrett Biblical Institute.—It is worth more to the Bible student than any set of Commentaries; is a full thesaurus of Biblical, Theological and Ecclesiastical learning, and is not likely to be superseded for a generation to come."

Rev. S. L. Bowman, S. T. D., Dean of the School of Theology in DePauw University.—"I would not be without it for any consideration short of an impossibility. I can not understand how any scholarly man can consent to be without the wonderful work of these two accomplished scholars."

N. B.—The late Revised Edition of this work in 12 vol., as now published, the supplementary volumes and volumes for filling partial sets can be obtained through this agency only.

Price per volume: Cloth, $5; Sheep, $6; Half Morocco, $8. Generous discounts on the foregoing prices to ministers; also sold on the credit installment plan. Canvassers wanted. Address,
